

The Babes in the wood Forest Schools initiative for pre-school children is open to families for two sessions over the Summer. Children up to eight years old may attend with one or more parents/ carers

The sessions are FREE and are being offered in a partnership between Marsden and Slaithwaite Renaissance and SPLAT. Activities will take place in a local wood and will focus on using outdoor play to enhance children's development.

Sessions will run on Thursday 28th July and Thursday 25th August, starting at 9.45 a.m. and finishing at 1 p.m.

Meet at the Slaithwaite Community Centre, Bank Gate.

Please wear appropriate outdoor clothing suitable for the weather.

Owing to health and safety considerations a one parent/carer to two children ratio will be in place for these sessions.
